

Tuesday 9 July - 3pm

SDG4: At the Heart of Achieving the 2030 Agenda

Quality Education is at the heart of sustainable development. Integrative and innovative approaches to education build intellectual capacity, increase health and wellbeing, and provide opportunities for local people to contribute to sustainable solutions to the global issues affecting them.

This interactive panel discussion will focus on realistic recommendations for integrated, quality education through a rights-based lens, including urban, rural, and impoverished communities around the world.

Speakers:

Nakato Betty RSCJ Society of the Sacred Heart

Brian Fitzsimons iScoil Ireland

Kristin Hokanson Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur

Nick Newland Associated Country Women of the World

Facilitator:

ElizabethAnn Kelly Society of the Sacred Heart

Venue:

UN Church Center

10th Floor

777 United Nations Plaza

New York, NY 10017

#SDG4

#HLPF

