

South India Workshop Programme

22-24 August 2019

Casa Maria, Kottayam, Kerala

Day 1

Morning

- Registration and room allocation (8.45-9.30am)
- Welcome and introductions
- Opening prayer
- Introduction to JCoR

Tea Break

- Introduction to the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs): Global Context
- Multi-congregation, small-group discussion: Which SDGs would you prioritise and why?
Consider both:
 - Personal passions and ministry experience
 - Congregation's charism and primary ministries
- Congregation team activity: Mapping our relationships with the SDGs
Work on posters/presentations demonstrating:
 - How your personal ministries and your congregation's primary ministries emerge from your charism
 - How your personal ministries and your congregation's primary ministries each relate to one or more SDGs

Lunch Break

Afternoon

- Introduction to the SDGs: Indian Context
- Congregation team activity: Mapping our contribution to the SDGs
Review the list of India's national SDG indicators for the Goals you have named as priorities for your congregation. Does your congregation directly impact any of the listed indicators? Could you track (or are you already tracking) your impact in any of these areas? If so, list them on the back of the appropriate SDG tiles on your poster.

Tea Break

- Presentations of SDG and indicator maps
- Collection of feedback on Day 1

Overnight assignment:

Choose an existing report on your congregation's works and weave in references to the SDGs and indicators to which they contribute. (If you do not have access to a pre-existing report, draft 2-3 paragraphs summarizing your congregation's primary ministries and include SDG and indicator references.)

Day 2

Morning

- Brief report on Day 1
- Collection of feedback on the overnight assignment: challenges, stress, and usefulness
- Introduction to Systems Leadership: Spreading the Good News of the SDGs

Tea Break

- Seeds of change: sharing experiences of leadership in our own institutions and ministries for greater impact in our social outreach and advocacy

Lunch

Afternoon

- The Role of Women and Men Religious at the United Nations
- Going Global (part 1): Learning about UN advocacy processes through 3 examples

Tea Break

- Storytelling with impact: guidelines for writing strong case studies
- Collection of feedback on Day 2

Overnight assignment:

With the case study-writing guidelines we discussed today in mind, write the story of one person whose life you have changed through your ministry to them.

Day 3

Morning

- Brief report on Day 2
- Guided self-review of case studies
- Partner review of case studies
- Going Global (part 2): Timelines & Resources for Input into the UN System
- Revision and rewriting of case studies, incorporating indicators, hard data, and SDGs where possible
- Group photo

Lunch

Afternoon

- E-group formation
- Sharing of individual needs and common concerns
- Action plan development
- Collection of feedback on workshop as a whole
- Closing prayer & appreciations
