The Spirit of God is Always with Us at This Time, in This Space

(author unknown)

We awaken in our time to a Universe which is holy,
to creation which is not an event in the past, but a living event of the present.

We enter a new mode of human presence where we are not merely observers, but where each of us is a participant in this moment of evolution.

Like all other creatures, we carry with us Wisdom and Values, the dynamics of the Universe.

We must choose whether and how we will live in harmony within this sacred web of creation.

All: May we be open to the Source of All Being, Spirit within and among us!

We have the capacity to wonder, and to celebrate this great mystery of existence within such a magnificent Universe!

In us, the Universe enters into a great celebration of itself.

We are part of the Dance,
the Great Work,
the Great liturgy,
which is the Universe unfolding.

All: Glory to You, O Source of All Being, Spirit within and among us!

This great Liturgy finds expression at this moment in us,
gathered here in a posture of prayerful openness,
with listening hearts, loving spirits, and a holy wonder.

May the sacred web that unites us with each other,
our God,
and all creation,
ignite communities of light and hope throughout the Earth.

All: Guide our hearts and hands, O Source of All Being, Spirit within and among us!

O Gracious, gentle Spirit of Love, your energy permeates the Universe, igniting Earth with your Goodness, Truth, and Beauty.

Open our minds and hearts to a deeper awareness of our interconnectedness with You.

Open our minds and hearts to a deeper awareness of our interconnectedness with each other.

Open our minds and hearts to a deeper awareness of our interconnectedness with all creation.

May we experience your unique presence

Within the sacred web of creation, and

Within the global community gathered in this space today.

Almighty God, who are mother and father to us all,
Look upon your planet Earth divided.

Help us to know that we are all your children,
That all nations—and all congregations—belong to one great family,
And that all of our charisms,
All of our ministries,
All of the deepest longings of our hearts
Lead to you.

Today we pray in a special way for...

silenced children,

those suffering from corruption reigning in place of governance,

survivors of gender-based violence,

environmentalists facing threats and violence,

human rights defenders and religious minorities facing persecution in their homelands, those suffering from unrest in Afghanistan and Palestine,

those awaiting vaccine justice,

migrant workers facing discrimination and manipulation, and our sisters and brothers experiencing homelessness.

Multiply our prayer in every land
Until the whole Earth reflects your mercy,
United in your love.

Sustain our vision of a peaceful future
And give us strength to work unceasingly
To make that vision real.
