JCoR Guide to:

77TH SESSION OF THE UNITED NATIONS GENERAL ASSEMBLY

13-26 SEPTEMBER 2022

This guide was produced by the Justice Coalition of Religious (JCoR), a coalition of 20 non-governmental organizations that are accredited to collectively represent over 200 congregations of Roman Catholic women and men Religious at the United Nations (UN). For centuries, congregations of Religious have served people who have been rendered poor, vulnerable, oppressed, and marginalized by existing global systems. Through our membership in JCoR, we have united with our sister and brother organizations to enhance collaboration among our members—at UN Headquarters and around the world—in our common mission: to improve quality of life for people who are living in poverty and to enhance our stewardship of the natural environment.

The primary aim of our collaboration is to strengthen the capacity of Catholic Religious and their partners to address the root causes of human and environmental suffering.

We work toward this goal by coordinating national, regional, and global efforts of Religious to call on political leaders to take action for a just, equitable, and rights-based implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), the United Nations' Agenda for 2015-2030.

We hope these pages will help you join us in this mission!

What is it?

The United Nations General Assembly (UNGA) is the main policy-making body of the United Nations (UN), composed of representatives from each of the 193 UN Member States. It serves as a platform for discussion of specific issues that lead to voting on and adoption of resolutions.

Every year, the UNGA meets in regular sessions, which run from September to December. This year marks the 77th session of the UNGA (UNGA77). It will officially open on Tuesday, 13 September, and the first day of the high-level General Debate will begin on Tuesday, 20 September. The General Debate provides a space for Member States to deliver statements and raise any topic of importance in front of a world audience.

UNGA77 will present an opportunity for world leaders to come together to discuss how we can collectively create a more sustainable and just future for all.

TRANSFORMING EDUCATION SUMMIT

16-17, 19 September 2022

The UN Secretary-General is convening the Transforming Education Summit during the UNGA77, on September 16 (Mobilization Day), 17 (Solutions Day) and 19 (Leaders Day). The Summit is being held in response to a global crisis in education – one of equity and inclusion, quality and relevance. Often slow and unseen, this crisis is having a devastating impact on the futures of children and youth worldwide. The Summit seeks to generate greater political commitment to education as a public good and to set out a new vision for the education of the future. It will also serve to mobilize solutions and solidarity to turn that vision into reality, with a view to recovering pandemic-related learning losses and rescuing the education-related goals and targets of the 2030 Agenda.

TAKE ACTION AT UNGA77

HELP TAKE CLIMATE CHANGE TO THE WORLD'S HIGHEST COURT

- 1 Sign the petition, and share it with your networks!
- 2 Write a letter to your Head of State and your government's Permanent Mission at the UN, calling to support the resolution vote at UNGA! Use this template if needed.
- 3 Use social media to raise awareness: Tweet and post about this exciting campaign on climate change and human rights! Use the hashtag: #ICJA04Climate

Click here to watch a short video introduction to the campaign

In 2021, the Government of Vanuatu announced its intentions to take climate change to the International Court of Justice (ICJ), seeking an Advisory Opinion. An advisory opinion would be a powerful tool in bolstering state action on climate change, complement and strengthen the Paris Agreement, integrate human rights and climate change law, and provide necessary baselines for state action on adaptation, mitigation, and finance.

The road to the ICJ requires the UN General Assembly to pass a resolution requesting the ICJ to provide its opinion on the matter. This September 2022, the resolution will be brought before UN Member States. Only a simple majority of 50% (or 97 Member State votes) is needed for the resolution to pass. Therefore, a strong push is currently underway to secure the necessary support at the UNGA. We encourage you to join the call to action. Act now for climate change!

CALL TO ACTION:

“Make sure you hold your governments, your elected leaders accountable...Make sure you vote. Make sure that you get your priorities heard by those who have the power to make decisions and make sure that you are actively participating in civic and political life in your countries...create this change yourself...Don't wait for the UN or don't wait for your governments to deliver on these solutions...It is our future. We have to take matters into our own hands.”

Jayathma Wickramanayake, Secretary-General's Envoy on Youth, UNGA76
