

Indigenous Worldviews on Plants:

Human and Planetary Health

An event organized by the NGO Committee on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples in parallel with the 2023 Permanent Forum on Indigenous Issues

You are invited to a Zoom meeting.
When: Apr 18, 2023 12:00 - 1:30 EDT (US and Canada)

Human, planetary and territorial health have always been dependent on plants, and Indigenous peoples have always known of this vital relationship. In this event, we will look into the wisdom of Indigenous peoples' relationship to plants and how it's in contrast to our present-day industrialized viewpoint.

- Chenae Bullock, *Turtle Island (USA)
  Shinnecock tribal member, Author,
  50 Plant Medicines: Indigenous Oral History and Perspective

- Dr. Ben Geboe, *Turtle Island (USA)
  Yankton Sioux tribe, Executive Director,
  American Indian Community House, New York City

- Fr. Ignatius Soreng, *India
  Khadia tribe, Director of Sanskruti Kendra:
  Tribal Cultural and Research Center, Orisha, India

- Dr. Rafael LaTorre, *Colombia
  Doctor of Internal Medicine, Pioneer of integrative health models with Indigenous peoples in Colombia

REGISTRATION

Register in advance for this meeting:

https://fordham.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZEtfu-tpzsvHt2F2u477-1651tFKhJ60UIL

After registering, you will receive a confirmation email containing information about joining the meeting.

NGO Committee ON THE Rights of Indigenous Peoples

INDIGENOUS HEALTH SUBCOMMITTEE
SUNRAY MEIDATION SOCIETY