

UN PERMANENT FORUM ON INDIGENOUS ISSUES #UNPFII24

Indonesia's National Strategic Projects are further deteriorating the human rights situation in West Papua, which is already marred by decades of violations and conflict. This side-event will provide a general overview of the situation in West Papua and the impacts of extractive projects as a basis to discuss strategies for the protection of its Indigenous Peoples at the international level.

Speakers

H.E. Odo Tevi

Permanent Representative of Vanuatu to the UN in New York

Dorthea Wabiser

PUSAKA Foundation, Indonesia

Rukka Sombolingi

Alliance of Indigenous People of Indonesia

Simon Petrus Balagaise

Kondo Digul Indigenous Peoples Forum

Joan Carling

Indigenous Peoples' Rights International

Yan Warinussy

Legal Aid, Research, Investigation and Development Institute

Moderators

Budi Tjahjono

Franciscans International

Paul Rahmat SVD

VIVAT International

Human Rights Situation of Indigenous Peoples in West Papua

April 24th, 2025 • 3 - 4.30 pm
Church Center - 8th floor - New York

DEWAN ADAT PAPUA
(Papua Customary Council)

