

Coalición de Religiosos/as de la ONU por la Justicia

Región América Latina y el Caribe

INSPIRATIONAL THEMES

1. Justice from the grassroots: option for the poor and theological citizenship

- Justice and politics from the grassroots: evangelized and evangelizing communities.
- Positioning emerging subjects as protagonists of history.
- Anthropology of the poor and theological citizenship of the poor.
- Current and new references: community building from the margins.

2. Incarnate spirituality and transformative consecrated life

- Religious life, lay people, and charismatic families: signs of hope in wounded contexts.
- Incarnate spirituality: mysticism with open eyes and feet on the ground.
- Horizon towards the Global South: spirituality and mission from the margins.
- From a self-referential Church to a Church committed to justice and peace.

3. Integral formation for transformation

- Impact on formation and governance teams: awareness of justice, transformation, and humanization from within.
- Ongoing formation for leaders with a prophetic and community spirit.
- Education and change: liberating pedagogy from the anthropology of the poor.

4. Social and environmental justice: one cry

- Social justice and environmental justice: preferential option.
- SDGs from the Social Doctrine of the Church: a prophetic and hopeful reading.
- Reading reality from the Word of God and congregational charisms.

5. Public and political advocacy from the charisms

- Justice and politics: advocacy from grassroots communities.
- Formation for political participation from faith and charism.
- Spirituality, charisms, and political action in a synodal and territorial key.
- Systemic change, justice, and politics in global transformation.

Coalición de Religiosas/os de la ONU por la Justicia Región América Latina y el Caribe

6. Communication, interculturality, and peace

- Communication and interculturality: building bridges from diversity
- Crafting peace: reconciling spirituality in communities, groups, and contexts of violence.
- Culture of peace and justice from the community and the prophetic.

