

Giving Every Child a Chance: Building Just, Resilient, and Peaceful Societies through Social Protection and Early Childhood Care and Education

Thursday
05 February,
2026

1:15pm-
2:30pm ET

Virtual Event,
On Zoom

On the occasion of the 64th Session of the Commission for Social Development, this official side event seeks to explore:

- How integrated social protection and Early Childhood Care and Education (ECCE) can safeguard children's rights, reduce inequalities, and strengthen families from birth.
- Why universal, well-financed child- and family-centered policies are essential investments for resilient, peaceful, and cohesive societies—especially amid global crises and displacement.

Virtual event only. Registration required.

REGISTER AT
HTTPS://TINYURL.COM/CSOCD64

COMMISSION for SOCIAL DEVELOPMENT

United Nations Headquarters, New York

Department of Economic and Social Affairs

#CSocD #SDGs #GlobalGoals WEBSITE: social.un.org/csocd

SPEAKERS:

STÉPHANIE TOSCHI

Deputy Permanent Representative,
Permanent Mission of Luxembourg to the UN

FLORENCIA LOPEZ

Director, Global TIES for Children
Professor, New York University

CATHERINE PANTER-BRICK

Professor of Anthropology, Health, and Global Affairs,
Yale University

DAVID HARIS

Executive Director, Children's Research and Education
Institute, Columbia University

DINA CASTRO

Director, Institute for Early Childhood Well-Being
Professor, Boston University

MARCIANA POPESCU (MODERATOR)

Co-Director, Her Migrant Hub
Professor, Fordham University

